

The Galactic Thoughts Love/Light/Power Paper

*“Like All Souls, This Paper Is A Never Ending Work In Progress.
And Yet, Curiously, It Is Complete”*

The Blue Print & Soul Contract

This white paper (hereafter referred to as the Love Paper, Light Paper, Power Paper, or LLP Paper) lays down a conceptual framework for the creative productions of Rinzalzaphone/Daniel O'Keeffe, including (though not limited to) Galactic Thoughts & Galactic Literature. It is chiefly concerned with the video productions.

This Power paper is overlit and overshadowed by a number of non physical entities and groups, including (though not limited to) Pallas Athena, Djawal Kuhul, Quan Yin, Buddha, St. Germain, the Arcturians, the Sirians, the Pleadians, El Morya, Sananda, Mother Mary, Archangel Michael, Archangel Metatron, Galactic factions, spirit guides, and a number of higher dimensional constructs that have contracts to fulfill in terms of assisting Terra to elevate.

The productions and energetics are primarily soul orientated, stemming from a position that you do exist as an individual yet interconnected unit. Techniques/perspectives are shared from the perspective of an individual path to self actualization. Service work, 'giving up the self', and unity consciousness are not emphasized. These occur automatically on the path to Self Realization and are often mistakenly put first, reducing the students' progress. While magnificent things can and will be done in groups, the prime focus will be on individuals. The aim is primarily to become a soul infused personality or a soul orientated individual, and teachings are given from this position.

Rinzalzaphone brings the gifts of versatility, fluidity of thought, spaciousness, morphability, speed, flexibility, invisibility, mutability, interdimensionality, lightness, and graciousness (sometimes). It is the Divine and Sovereign right of each and every soul incarnate to understand his/her/its Divine gifts and to give them to the world. These are gifts bestowed by the Mother/Father and are not words designed to bolster the ego of the transcriber. There is no shadow in acknowledging individual gifts, once used appropriately.

This is outlined succinctly in the parable of 'The Master & The Talents' given by Master Jesus. Each soul has a responsibility to cultivate what the Father/Mother has loaned out to them. The children (souls) are never sent out into the world unarmed or unprotected. But they must multiply and expand, using their gifts as constructively as they know how. Too many souls bury their gifts in the sand, and this is a tragic waste when they return to the masters in between incarnations. They need to rinse and repeat.

While transcriber is by no means free of glamor, maya, or illusion, the levels are more than acceptable in terms of serving as a Divine conduit for higher teachings that can potentially have a major impact on the elevation of Terra and its divine inhabitants (this refers to far more than the souls embodied in human suits).

Teachings can only be conducted through a soul that is receptive to them and aligned with them to a certain degree. This is why it is important to have an understanding of the traits and attributes of a given channel. It will also give the receiver a wider context with which to evaluate teachings and lessons from other dimensions and other heavenly spheres.

Rinzalzaphone is suited due to his fluidity of mind, open mindedness, morphability, and smoothness of thought. This makes him useful as a multidimensional transcription artist of a wide variety of Galactic messages. These same traits make him unsuitable for a large variety of tasks and activities, but that is irrelevant; projects are preassigned before incarnation and skills/circumstances developed to match.

Even the Masters work through the traits and attributes of a disciple/chela/initiate/aspirant to give certain messages. There are different truths and messages for different souls depending on what they need to hear, their soul ray, astrological constitution, general situation, etc.

For astrological information, the Scribe was conceived at 2:12 on July 20th, 1990. He is a Blue Ray Soul, Cancer Sun, and Vata-Pitta Dosha.

The Galactic Thoughts Video Series

Galactic Thoughts is a series of videos that are all independent of each other, though interconnected. One video does not need to align with any other, and they are often contradictory and paradoxical. The idea is that the video series is to be a buffet, or an art museum. You can take the videos that resonate with you and leave what does not. If you don't like something, move on to something that you do like.

Your vibrational filtration system does an excellent job in terms of letting you know what works for your particular position in the ladder of evolution. So there is no need to judgmentalize a given video or episode. Something that might repulse your energy field might be very enjoyable and suitable to another person.

The purpose of these videos is primarily mental expansion. It is a form of Mental Martial Arts (MMA), a parallel to mixed martial arts for the physical body, though both are intertwined (a strong body is nearly always complemented by a strong mind, though not always). Just like Yoga Asanas for the body, the mind can get stronger when stretched in different directions. Stretching the mind is quite healthy, otherwise it tends to stagnate.

And the human mind is currently in a deep state of atrophy. This is to be expected, with people tied to desks for 40 hours a week, and that's in the 'developed' world. Doing the same thing, believing the same ideas, repeating the same patterns, can only result in mental stagnation and various forms of blockages.

This is partially what Galactic Thoughts and other releases are here to address. New ideas are to be introduced to the public consciousness, and these new ideas come from various 'places' across the Cosmos. But the ideas have to be not just entertained, but integrated and lived. For instance, there is little point in entertaining the idea of cultural immersion in your mind in order for expansion.

You need to book a ticket, go to a different country, learn the language, eat the food, walk barefoot upon the earth, and immerse yourself as much as possible. Life is about actualization and experience, not intellectual discourse. The intellectual discourse mostly sets the scene for inspiration which leads to actualization.

Galactic Thoughts is a soul-orientated channel. Choose the videos, the ideas that set you on fire, and run with them. Life is short and precious. Take swift and decisive action on your inspiration.

We, the masters, are always at hand to help and assist.

We exist, to assist, and serve.

Codeword & Keyword List

Each database or system of thought has its own series of meanings and terms. The word 'mind' or 'enlightenment' or 'ego' can have different meanings depending on which database or series of teachings you are using. The following keywords associations should help you to understand Galactic Thoughts and Galactic Literature so you get the encoded light language and deeper messages. It's about 'triggering' your DNA so you have deep cellular understanding while reading certain words or sentences. It's basically helping you to recollect ideas that you once knew.

All of the following groups of words have largely synonymous meanings. These words are used quite loosely by the transcriber, so you have to learn to tune in to what is being said. For example, the word 'Soul' can be used in a certain way to have a different meaning in a different article or video. It all depends on the context. A personality will need to be guided towards soul-orientated living, while a soul will need to be guided towards Monadic practices.

It's also worth understanding that it often does not matter if a term is not 'technically' correct. For instance, an individual might need to be made aware that there is a ruling elite. The fact that there is a ruling elite that controls the globe is what needs emphasis. Whether that is the Annunaki, the Dracos, the Rothschilds, the Bilderbergers, the Grays, or otherwise is irrelevant.

This is why the terms are used loosely. Similarly, it is more important (initially) to know you have guidance from non-physical beings as to knowing what 'dimension' they are on or who they are or what their name is. Just tap into a high, pure, divine consciousness and see what flows through. Much energy can be wasted on trivial details that the ego mind believes are important, which are not important in the slightest. The following are some keyword groupings/thought bubbles for your contemplation:

Dracos - Deep State - Lizzies - Shadow Government - Reptiles - Dark Masters - Illusion Practitioners - Illuminati - Forces of Darkness - Forces of Satan - The Decepticons - The Black Hats

The Androids - The Flatlanders - The Muggles - The Zombies - The Collective Unconsciousness - The Collective Ego Mind - The Walking Dead

Hierarchy - Shamballa - Masters - Melchizedek/Budda/Christ Mind - Divine Presence - I AM Presence - The Presence - The Light - God - Expanded Awareness - Creative Reason - Nature

The V - Maxine - Vaccine - Vaccine Virus - Experimental Gene Therapy - DNA Warfare - The Juicing Program

Negative Ego - Persona - Automatic Projections - Monkey Mind - Artificial Program - Fake Self (generally results in suffering, misery, delusion, conceit)

Positive Ego - Soul - Conscious Projections - Authentic Self - Self Program - Natural Self - Gifted Self (generally results in joy, happiness, peace, tranquility, purpose)

Higher Self - I AM Presence - Radiant Emanations - Divine One - Non Program - Siddhi Self - Divine Self (generally results in transcendence, removal of self, unity consciousness)

Frequently Asked Questions: Common Misconceptions

Q: Why Soul Orientation? Why Not Unity Consciousness/Service/Non-Duality right from the beginning?

A: For many reasons. First, it is not possible to be of correct service until the physical, mental, and emotional vehicles are cleansed. When these are pure, unity consciousness and service work are more of a natural outpouring. It's impossible to do it the other way around.

Second, it's easier to relate to individual development and it will hit a wider audience. It is less likely to repel people and is more attractive as well as practical to take on.

Third, take note of the fact that fake or pretend altruism is the No.1 tool of the International Government. All of the deepest atrocities happen due to the prevention of so-called atrocities. This can be the 'unbelievers', imaginary viruses, the Chinese, the Japanese, the rise of Communism, the "financial terrorists", etc. The list of imaginary threats is limited only to the extent of the Imagination, stemming from underlying fear energetics. The worst atrocities are always committed in the name of the "Greater Good". The most recent example of this is the Certificate Of Vaccine Identification 2019 (COVID-19) Thought Virus, from which the Shadow government administered a vaccine aimed at infertility and planetary depopulation. This program has been a huge success.

Fourthly, is that it is a little unnatural to act (or try to act) as a Higher Self. Be compassionate and kind to yourself. You will slip in and out of personality consciousness, Soul Consciousness, and Higher Self Consciousness. By acting out the desires of the soul, you will eradicate your karma and have an enjoyable time. By striving to become a Higher Self, you will get in your own way. You can also exhibit tendencies of one state in a particular area while exhibiting other states in a different area.

Fifth, is that it deprives the negative egos from calling you egotistical. You never pretended to be anything else ;) Which is precisely what they are doing. The Negative Ego sees itself everywhere.

Q: I'm familiar with all the Masters. They would never sanction anything like this. You are a liar and charlatan, like Teal Swan and Magenta Pixie and Abraham Hicks and...

A: We welcome all questions. The opportunity to clear up misconceptions is a Divine Gift. We, the Masters, come through many channels to convey Truth energetics and guide individual souls in the correct direction as much as possible. To do this, we have to operate through human vehicles. This is due to both practicality and Cosmic law.

We have to utilize the conceptual frameworks and vocabulary within the human vehicle. So even the same Master coming through a different channel will have different energetics, because the teachings/energetics are literally filtered through the channel. So while there has to be a degree of purity to receive our energetics, the transmission is always going to come out in a particular way. There is nothing essentially wrong with this. Corruption is certain within the 3D realm!

Consider the works of Matias Flury and Magenta Pixie, both channeling 'The Nine'. Both are remarkably clear channels. But the produced works are different. This is because the Nine have to use language the channels are familiar with. 'Language' in this context also includes things like past lives and experiences. Remember that the reason that these Two examples are given is because the Galactic Scribe is familiar with them. We have to use these examples. They are also at the forefront of his consciousness, and we always use the most direct route to follow the Laws of Divine efficiency.

Q: It's the height of arrogance to channel other entities and to sully the works of the Masters.

A: You have existing preconceptions about what you think the Masters are. A large part of spiritual evolution revolves around getting rid of your preconceptions. Also, there is nothing magical about channeling an Archangel, Ascended Master, Pleadian, Sirian, Future Self, or otherwise.

You yourself determine that it is somehow magical and then project your ideology onto others.

For the Scribe, channelling is nothing. He does not see anything magical about it and often wonders why others do not simply connect to all the Masters and Guides who are open to their queries. This material or style of communication is simply unfamiliar to you. As you become comfortable with it, then it will cease to be viewed as magic. But the Negative Ego likes to Project its insecurities so it never has to become familiar with new ideas that help it to evolve out of its rigid shell. This is a great tragedy.

You are a DIVINE RECEPTACLE. You come from God Consciousness. You are God Consciousness. The only reason you might think the Scribe is deceitful is because you view yourself as small and incapable of doing same.

In a world of falling water, rising plants, thunderclouds, lightning bolts, animals, and everyday miracles, the Negative Ego is quite selective and narrow in what it believes is possible.

Talking to the Masters is Child's Play. We say this humorously, because children talk to us frequently, in a playful manner. Before the adults talk them out of it ;))
